I am against removing any morse code requirements. The bands are already loaded with inexperienced hams. Some dues should be paid in order to get on hf. Learning code is part of those dues. 80 and 20 meters are already jammed up so badly that you can barely communicate.
I am expressly against removing code requirements!!!! Keep the code.
It is not time to drop the code.